FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Head Coach Ray Murphy

This could be the best football team in the history of Kean College. And with the schedule it must play, it had better be.

An air of optimism hangs over the campus as new coach Ray Murphy and his staff burn the midnight oil to get ready for the season.

"The defense looks excellent," Murphy said. "They're strong, hard-nosed kids, who really love to hit. The defense has been good here for the last two years, but I think it will be better this season. We have some new faces and a good nucleus of Veterans."

The defense has had to carry the load for Kean in recent years, but this is the year the offense will stand up and be counted.

"The offensive line is bigger and better and we have excellent speed in the backfield," Murphy said. "Joe Troise is our most versatile back, but we have a few others who can do the job too.

"Bobby Douglas has looked very good at quarterback. I really think he's taken a lot of bad raps in the past; he's a vastly underrated football player.

"Douglas will have to run this year with our veer offense and he's handled it well. And the passing attack has looked better than I ever expected it could at this stage."

Kean will play a 10-game schedule again this year, opening with State College Conference power Montclair State. The Quires will also face strong opponents in Salisbury State, Kutztown State and conference rivals Glassboro and Trenton.

Fordham is the only new foe and the Rams will host Kean on September 17th.

"The important thing, of course, is to avoid injuries," Murphy said. "We've already had too many and the season hasn't started yet. We don't have that much depth . . . at least depth with experience."

Defensively, Kean will be led by nose guard Dave Abbruzzese, a senior from North Plainfield. Murphy calls hims the best football player on the squad because of size, quickness and all-around smarts.

Biff Wilbur heads up the linebackers and is a four-year starter and co-captain, along with Len Cuppari, who will start at tackle. Bob Peterson heads up the defensive secondary and will play safety.

Troise is an all-conference player, who should have his best year, thanks to an improved offensive line. The other backfield spots are still undecided.

John Noce has been impressive on the offensive line, along with freshmen Don Hard and Ed Jackimowicz. Larry Dubiel will be the center.

You won't believe the sound. You'll never believe the price.

Magnavox Modulars. They're packed with everything that goes into super stereo—except a high price tag. For example, the 1725 has:

☐ a solid-state stereo FM/AM tuner-amplifier to pull in those weak stations you'd like to listen to, and to keep them from drifting;

☐ a 3-speed automatic turntable with diamond stylus and smoked plastic dustcover;

☐ a built-in 8 track recorder/player;

☐ a pair of newly-designed 2-way tuned-vent speakers to give you rich, deep bass with astonishing efficiency;

☐ a price that's surprisingly low for such high performance.

Why not stop by your Magnavox dealer and tell him you'd like big sound at a small price. He'll know just what to show you.

KEAN COLLEGE SOCCER

SOCCER OUTLOOK

An optimistic air surrounds the Squire soccer team this season as Coach Tony Ochrimenko attempts to blend a collection of veterans, transfers and freshman into a winning unit.

"The talent is definitely here," Ochrimenko said during pre-season drills. "If they can come together and play as a team, it could be a very good year. Right now I have to be optimistic."

Ochrimenko, a former All-American player at Kean, is beginning his second year as head coach. The Squires finished at 8-6 last season.

Heading the list of returnees is Marvin Woods, a senior midfielder from Old Bridge. Woods was a Tri-State All-America choice last season and will be relied on heavily this season.

Vince Nardiello, a junior from Bricktown, and goalie Bob DeFino, a senior from Maplewood, are also expected to fill vital roles. Nardiello was an all-state player a year ago.

Tom Durkin, a junior from Red Bank, sat out last year after transferring and figures to be a mainstay in the Squire defense, along with Don Henriques, Taras Szczur and Moses Owe.

"I'll really be disappointed if we don't do better than last year," Ochrimenko said. "We've got a good nucleus of veterans and some real good transfers and freshmen."

Bob Coyle is one of the prize freshmen. He helped take Columbia High to the State final the last three years and is given a good chance at starting. Mike Torre of Old Bridge is another.

Joe Andruzzi of Staten Island and Al Anderson of New Brunswick are two of the top transfers capable of cracking the starting unit.

"What I'm really looking for is a consistent scoring attack," Ochrimenko said. "We've got to find a couple guys to put the ball in the net. We lacked that last year and it hurt. The defense should be good, but we have to score more goals."

Ochrimenko expects the conference to be pretty well balanced with Trenton, Glassboro and Montclair expected to be tough.
